

TAI PO SAM YUK SECONDARY SCHOOL
2007-2008 ESSAY COMPETITION
PRIMARY 6 -- ENGLISH

405	Seat No.
	18

Cloudy

25th November, 2007

Today I did a very naughty thing — I broke my mother's beautiful vase!

When I came home from school, my mother was not at home. She went to the market to buy some food for dinner. She wrote a letter to me and told me to do all the homework. I was not pleased but I did all of them.

When I finished my homework, I turned on the television and watched cartoon happily. I was eating ice-cream while I was watching TV. The cartoon was very funny! It made me smile.

One hour later, I was bored in watching TV. I switched off the television and I felt sleepy. I should rest for a while. I went to the bedroom for a nap.

When I got up, my mother had not come back yet! I thought I would play some games. I saw a football at the corner of the dining room. I could not find any other things to play so I played with the football. Playing football was a very fun game but I was not good at playing football. 'Boom'! Oh no, I broke my mother's vase!

I was very afraid because this vase was mother's favourite thing. Would she punish me? I had a lot of question marks in my heart.

A few minutes later, mother came back from the market. She saw the broken vase and ask me, 'Do you break the vase?' Mother asked angrily. I thought I was a honest boy so I told the turth to my mother. I thought my mum would punish me but she didn't. 'Don't do some silly things that make me angry!' said mother. I promised her.

Today, I have learnt a lot of things. I should be honest and can't do silly things forever.