Title : There are good people everywhere in our city

Dear diary,

Today was not the brightest day in my life. When I woke up, it was already half past eight, and school was about to start in half an hour! I stared at the clock, not knowing what to do. I promptly got dressed and ran to the bus stop. I had to wait for fifteen minutes until the bus arrived. I could feel cold sweat running down my face. When I was about to get on the bus, I realized that I forgot to bring my wallet! I tried to blink back my tears, but it was no use. Two hot streams of tears rolled down my cheeks. That's when a young, tall and slim lady dressed in an elegant dress saw my frustration and came to my rescue. She asked, "What's wrong, little girl?" "I forgot to bring my wallet." I answered between sobs. "Well, I can lend you mine, if you want." I usually would not answer to such kind offers, but today was an exception. I thanked the nice lady and got on the bus. "Thank goodness!" I thought in relief.

△△ When I got to school, I was still speechless with joy. I told my friends about my experience. They all said I was indeed very lucky. And guess what? I was still in time for picture day!

Despite all that happened today, I still enjoyed myself at school and took a great picture. I vow I will double check and be extra careful the next time. And the kind lady's words will always be in my mind. I have to go to bed now. Wish me good luck!
