Title: Grandfather's 60th birthday

My grandfather's birthday is coming soon. It is a really important birthday because he will be sixty years old. He is very fond of me and I love him too! I want this birthday to be a special one for him and my family so I have a fantastic plan about his birthday.

First of all, I will decorate his house secretly. I will use some flowers. My grandfather loves roses. He loves that fragrant smell so I will put sixty flowers. Secondly, I will also use some stickers. I will probably use them in the living room. It will be really <sup>hand-make</sup> colourful. Thirdly, I will draw some flowers and trees. Maybe some birds is a good idea too! I want most of the things are hand-make so that it will be special. Moreover, my family and I will make a cake for my grandfather. I will use cream, strawberries, chocolate and jelly because these things are grandfather's favourite. Of course, there will be a party. With all these things, I think it will be more wonderful.

About the present, I will also make it special. There will be two presents. The first present is a family tree on a paper. I will make it by myself. I must find some photos of all my family and cut it out. Then I will stick on a pink paper and draw a tree <sup>carefully</sup> behind all the photos and some bushes.

Some birds and flowers are a must too! The second present is a clothes. I am good at sewing so I am confident about making this present. It will be a black T-shirt with white words on it. It seems a little bit simple but I think grandfather will still like this. I also hope that he will be over the moon about it because cool style clothes. I may be as busy as a bee for making the presents.

I really love my grandfather. Although it is hard to make these things, it is still worth to be tired for my grandfather's birthday. I hope my grandfather likes the way we celebrate.
