Title: How To Improve Our English

English is an international language. We can use English to talk to anyone anywhere in the world. It is important ^{for us} to have good English speaking so that we can communicate with others easily.

We all know that English is important. But, how can we improve our English? How can we get better at English?

Actually, there are lots of ways to improve our English skills. Let me tell you right now. First, we should read more English books. There are many good English books ^{we can} buy in bookstores. I really love J.K. Rolin's "Harry Potter" and Rold Dahil's "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory". It is really fun to read their books and those books are all very fantastic that there are lots of good words in it. We can learn a lot from those books.

Second, we should watch more English programmes ^{and films}. Many of them are very interesting and humorous. Also, we can train our listening skills from it. But, we should not watch those English programmes ^{or films} with Chinese subtitles in it because it's not good for us to look at those ^{Chinese} subtitles.

Third, we should mark down those new vocabulary we don't know and try to find them in ^a dictionary. We can learn lots of vocabulary by finding them in a dictionary. Also, we should jot down notes while we're having English lessons. And we should ask our teachers things we don't know clearly in the lesson. It can help us to improve our grammar.

Finally, we should always talk to others by using English. We must be confident while we're talking to others. We should be polite that we should greet them and smile at them. We can improve our speaking skills by talking to others. Also, we can get good marks in our oral exams if we do all of these things.

In fact, there are lots more ways to improve our English. But the most important thing is to speak more since it's good to talk to others. We can improve our grammar and we can also learn more vocabulary by using these ways.

By using all these ^{following} ways, I'm sure we can improve our English and get good marks in our ^{English} exams. What do you think of these ways? Do you have any new ideas to improve our English?
