PRIMARY 5 -- ENGLISH

Question

All schools in Hong Kong have NETs or Native English-Speaking Teachers. Below are pictures of a few.

One newspaper is inviting all Primary 5 students to write an article on the topic:

"How NETs help Hong Kong students"

The points below may be useful to you:

- learning English in the classroom
- using English outside the classroom
- learning about different countries and cultures

Write your article in about 200 words.

PRIMARY 5 -- ENGLISH

Topic : _____

NETs help Hong Kong students a lot. They teach us proper English.

First, we can learn English in the classroom. Learning English is one of the most important things. We can use English to communicate with different people. Moreover, my dream job is being a vocalist. Many songs are written in English so I need to learn English.

In addition, NETs teach us how to use English outside the classroom. In other places, we may meet different people who spoke different languages. English is one of the three most common languages. If we know how to use English outside the classroom, we can communicate with different people well and smoothly.

Furthermore, NETs teaches us about different countries and cultures. I love travelling very much. If I know different countries and cultures, I can afford the life there^{well} while travelling. Also, I can know more about the countries and gain more knowledge too. I even can recommend my friends and family the famous places that people always go. Therefore, they will feel over the moon and satisfied about my recommendation to them.

After all, I think NETs are really fantastic. They help me and other students a lot. I need to thank them spending time teaching us. I am thrilled to have them guiding us in every school!
