TAI PO SAM YUK SECONDARY SCHOOL
15th WRITING COMPETITION, 2019
PRIMARY 5 -- ENGLISH

Dear Jess,

How are you? I miss you very much. Last week, I went to my school's sports day at Hong Kong Sports Ground.

At 9 a.m., the sports day started. We stood up and sang our school song. Later, the competitions started. There were running, long jumping and relay competitions. I took part in the relay competition with my friends Peter, Tom and Johnny. When we went to the running track, I saw my rival - Jerry who runs very fast. I was very nervous as I did not want to be slower than him.

"Ready, set, go!" Peter and the other competitors heard ^{when} the starting horn, they shot off like rockets. Unfortunately, Peter was running slowly and the other competitors all got past him.

When he gave the baton to Tom, Tom ran fast and caught up with the second fastest runner. Unlike Tom, Johnny ran slowly so he was the last. At that moment, we were all on pins and needles and my heart beated rapidly as if I would get a heart attack.

The next moment, I saw Johnny running at me. I quickly took the baton and sped up. After a few moments,

I was in second place. In front of me was Jerry, he gave me the evils and said, "Ha ha! I will be first! Loser!" ^{when we were close to the finish line,} when he suddenly tripped on his foot. I ran across the finish line first! The crowd cheered. I was on seventh heaven but I went back to take the injured jerry to the first-aid station. I saw a wound on his leg and he said, "Ouch! Thank you, Jon." After arriving at the first-aid station, I went to my teammates. "Yeah!" We shouted. The principal gave us gold medals. We also saw interesting cheerleading performances before they ended.

^{sports day}
It was a very delightful day. I learnt the importance of helping others. What about you? Did you have a sports day?
Please write back soon.

Yours,

Jon.
