A Trip To Beijing

This Christmas and New Year holiday, I wish to go to Beijing. I am very glad that I can choose the destination for my family this time.

Beijing is in China which is same as Hong Kong. I am very keen to know more about what people in Beijing do on Christmas and New Year. The Christmas holiday is a Western holiday. On the other hand, the New Year is a Chinese holiday. What will the people in China do as Christmas is not their holiday? It will be very interesting to find out and will it be the same in Hong Kong? Maybe, you can't be sure unless you have been there.

Will the people mix the two different world up? Will they give out red packet on Christmas? I don't know and I would love to find out. The holiday is not very long but it is quite cheap. I will have more time to prepare for school if the holiday is

As China is the mother of Hong Kong, we may use this ^{not too} long holiday to learn more about the past too. This will make the holiday really fun and meaningful. Knowing more about the past will make you learn from the past like we learned to work together from what happened in the World War Two.

In conclusion, I would like to go to Beijing for this New Year and Christmas because of its past. There are marks of the past left in the city everywhere. Discover the city of China, discover the past of China.
